

A child's drawing on a yellow background. At the top, there are two large, white, fluffy clouds. In the upper right corner, a simple sun is drawn with orange lines radiating from a central point. In the center, a bee is depicted with a black and white striped body, a smiling face, and two antennae. The bee is flying towards the right. Below the bee, there are three flowers. The flowers are drawn with thick, expressive strokes in shades of red, orange, and pink. They have green stems and leaves. The overall style is simple and illustrative, typical of a child's artwork.

Bee Hive Flight

by Estree Arenal

A girl caught a bee in a flower.

She took it home
and put the flower and the bee into a bee box.

Then she went to sleep.

The bee stung her and she woke up.

Then, the bee got big and grew hair,
the girl grew antennae. The bee grew two arms and two legs, the girl grew six legs and beautiful wings.

"What's happening?" said the bee.

The girl said, "bzzzz bzzz bzzzz."

The mother bee was looking for her baby.

She heard the girl saying "bzzzz bzzz bzzzz," and thought it was her baby. So, she took the baby bee out the window to the bee hive.

A lot of bees were coming in from outside because it was getting dark.

The bee, that was now a girl, went out the door and ran to the bee hive. When she got to the bee hive, the girl that was a bee stung her because she knew they would switch places again.

The bee flew into the hive to her mother. The girl ran home and got into her bed.

In the morning, the girl woke up and said, "what a dream!"

But when she looked at her hands, they were full of honey!

By Estree
Kinten in 2008

THE END

HAPPY LACVA DAY

BISS
SARY

